Saints of the Week

St Benedict, Abbot - 11th July

Born at Norcia in Umbria about 480. He studied in Rome, and then turned his back on the world and lived in solitude in Subiaco. Disciples came to him and he went to Monte Cassino, where he founded a monastery. He wrote his Rule, which established the spirituality and way of life of monastic communities ever since. He died in 547.

St Henry – 13th July

Born in 973, Henry became Duke of Bavaria on his father's death in 995 and was crowned Holy Roman Emperor in 1014. He was married but had no children. He was ardent for the reform of the Church, took part in synods, founded monasteries, appointed bishops of integrity. With his wife he lived a semi-monastic life of prayer and discipline.

St Bonaventure, Bishop & Doctor of the Church – 15th July

Born in 1218. He studied in Paris and became professor there. He joined the Franciscan Order and eventually became Minister General in 1257. He endeavoured to reconcile the Franciscan spirit with the administrative demands of world-wide order. His writings reveal a profound spirituality. He was appointed Cardinal Bishop of Albano, and attended the Council of Lyons, which attempted to reconcile the Churches of East and West. He died in 1274.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel – 16th July

Carmel was the place where the prophet Elijah proclaimed the faith of Israel in the one God, the meeting place of God and his people. During the Crusades, Christian hermits established themselves in caves on the mountain. In the 13th century, they joined together in a religious community known as the Carmelites.

Mount Carmel overlooks the plains of Galilee, not far from Nazareth, and is particularly under the protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

God Bless Fr Tony
