

Cyril Webster RIP

Dad was a good man and supported Mum with all her work at the Church.

For years he drove her to St Teresa's on a Saturday afternoon so that she could prepare the altar and church for Sunday Mass.

Wherever she needed to go, he helped her and he was also a good friend to Audrey and Terry Evans, especially when they became housebound. He would often speak to Terry and Michael their son when he was there helping his parents. He got on well with Fr Tony and Canon Charles, I seem to remember, often talking about football and putting the world to rights.

Everyone who met Dad found him easy to talk to and he was always joking and making light-hearted of things. Until the later years he was very patient and easy going.

He always loved his family.

Cyril Webster's burial will take place at St Teresa's at 2.30pm on Wednesday 15 June. All who knew him are welcome.
